

Objectives of the 2018 Learning Convening

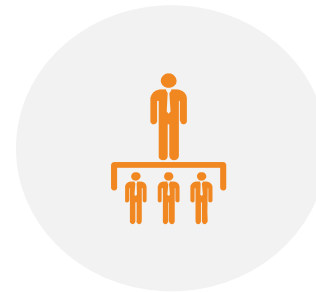

Overall, the 2018 Convening is geared towards introspection around the concept of learning. It is expected that by the end of the 2018 convening participants will have:

Deepened understanding of and capacity to promote the culture of learning within organizations

Shared and reflected on the concrete programming improvements which have emerged from learning

Started using Communities of Practice crafted around INSPIRE strategies to reflect on how to prevent and respond to VAC

Generated ideas for further advancing the learning agenda
