

Personal Reflection – June 17, 2022

What's Next?

I'd like to dig a garden

I'd like to plant a tree.

I'll rock a bit and listen

To what is next for me

To do, to be.

My garden is a group of folks

Who Zoom to talk to me,

Expecting seeds of wisdom.

I do not disappoint.

We laugh a lot and tell our tales.

I listen and say WOW!

They're courageous, generous daring and caring.

We

make hope

in our sharing.
