

Personal Reflection – November 10, 2022

Doin' Nothing

You gotta smile at the idea of a woman in her nineties, trying hard to do nothing. However, that is my situation. I say morning prayer at two-thirty p.m. because I am so busy 'til then. Busy with computer stuff, busy with bank stuff, busy with calls and Zoom calls I set up for myself. Busy looking for my phone in this small house!

I am ambitious about doing nothing.

It isn't easy. Busi-ness often wins. Busi-ness invades retirement, busi-ness stomps on contemplation, busi-ness tempts me to put down a good mystery and empty the dishwasher! I am trying to do nothing, well!

Operas to sing along with, books to read, movies to laugh and cry over...Snoozin'.

Don't put a lot of money on the chances of my big win.

--by Jane Vella