

Personal Reflection – February 17, 2024

Dying Is Dialogue

In a few months I will be 93 years old.
What am I learning in this new, unfamiliar stage of my life?
In terms of my proximate death, I know it is all Your call.
Okay God: Father, Lover, Sanctifier.
And You have heard my prayer for “Soon”.

In terms of my future,
You know the amazing surprise that awaits me.
You smile now, today anticipating the look on my face and the WOW on my lips when I come home.

Each event of my past that I bring with me into this eternal glory,
I see as a building block of the new homecoming Me!
God: Father, Lover, Sanctifier says,
“Welcome home, Jane.”
I laugh with joy. God knows my name!

Soon.

--by Jane Vella

