

Personal Reflection – November 21, 2023

No Humility Here

I do not claim humility. No, I am proud! Immensely proud of the many diligent, loving teachers who spend hours in painstaking preparation: designing courses, classes, meetings, and trainings using Dialogue Education principles and practices. I shout their praise to the world!

I've been a "Rocking Chair Lady" for 23 years! My pride increases daily, as I rock and smile, proudly!
